CAMERON-WOODBURN

Miss Isabella C. Cameron, daughter of the Reverend and Mrs. M. F. Cameron, became the bride of William B. Woodburn, Friday evening, January 25, at a beautiful ceremony at the Women's Club house.

Presiding the ceremony, Mr. Thomas Jackson, cousin of the bride sang "For You Alone" and "I Love You Truly."

The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's "Wedding March," played by Miss Eileen Woodburn, sister of the groom. Reverend M. F. Cameron, father of the bride, performed the ceremony under a bower of greens, interwoven with acacia, purple heather, stock and sweet peas.
One hundred twenty-five friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony.

The bride was lovely in an imported gown of Ruseglov chiffon, and carried a shower bouquet of butterfly roses, lilies of the valley and maiden hair fern, with streamers of pink satin knotted with lilies of the valley. Leaves of silver, interwined with pearls, adorned her hair. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.
Miss Christina Cameron, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a gown of peach chiffon. She carried rose sweet peas and maiden hair fern.

Mr. Jan Woodburn, brother of the groom, was best man. Following the ceremony, a wedding supper was served. Tables were beautifully decorated in shades of rose and peach. Both the bride and groom cut their respective cakes, making a lovely ceremony of the old custom.

An hour of singing and entertainment followed the supper. The music was of a Scotch nature, celebrating the anniversary of Robert Burns, Scotch poet, and the birthday of the bride, who is a native of Scotland.
Those who took part in the entertainment were Mr. Thomas Jackson, Mrs. John Viera, Mrs. Elizabeth Nagel, Mr. and Mrs. John Hill, Mr. Matthew Jackson, and Mrs. M. F. Cameron. The bride entertained with a vocal solo, with Miss Eileen Woodburn at the piano.

Immediately after the reception, the bride and groom left for a honeymoon at Coronado Beach. The bride wore a going-away dress of navy blue georgette, with a natural color bankok straw hat and a beige fox fur.
Mr. and Mrs. Woodburn will be at home to their friends at El Contento apartments, 5200 and Portola avenues, after February 11.

The bride is a popular and accomplished young woman, a recent graduate of the Chirothesian college, and has been associated in practice with her father.
